

Revere High School

School-wide Rubric for Creative Expression

	Exceeds Expectations	Meets Expectations	Approaching Expectations	Does Not Yet Meet Expectations
Content	Student's work exhibits a high degree of creative and original thought	Student's work exhibits an acceptable degree of creative and original thought	Student's work exhibits a limited degree of creative and original thought	Student's work exhibits mostly unoriginal thought
Design	Student's work shows a mastery of form and/or function	Student's work shows an acceptable level of form and/or function	Student's work shows a limited level of form and/or function	Work shows no awareness of form or function
Process	Student demonstrates strong perseverance and independence to see project through to completion	Student demonstrates perseverance and needs some assistance to see project through to completion	Student lacks perseverance and needs considerable assistance to see project through to completion	Student does not follow the appropriate process in completing a product
Product	Student's work is thought-provoking and engages the intended audience .	Student's work engages the intended audience	Student's work somewhat engages the intended audience	Student's work does not engage the intended audience